

IndoConnect NEWSLETTER

Welcome to IndoConnect weekly e-newsletter. The IndoConnect Newsletter is a comprehensive source of news, features, events, activities, and lifestyle topics catering to the Indonesian diaspora in Singapore. As a leading provider of content for Indonesians in Singapore, it serves as a major gateway for staying connected with the Indonesian community. With the support of the Republic of Indonesia Embassy in Singapore, this publication offers valuable information for both short- and long-term stays on the island. Stay informed and engaged with the IndoConnect Newsletter!

Singaporean Business Delegation Explores Investment Potential in IKN Nusantara

Singaporean entrepreneurs visit IKN Nusantara, expressing interest and readiness to invest in various sectors, including technology, renewable energy, healthcare, telecommunications, agriculture, and plantations.

Click For More

IndoStar, Empowering Indonesian Restaurants Worldwide for Global Success

Indonesia's Tourism Ministry launches the IndoStar program, providing training and support to 50 selected Indonesian restaurant owners abroad, aiming to scale up their businesses and attract potential investors, while promoting Indonesian cuisine and culture globally.

Click For More

Indonesia's Investment Potential Thrives During Elections

Finance Ministry of Indonesia remains optimistic about investment progress during the upcoming General Elections, citing potential for increased consumption and strong economic performance, supported by record IPOs and stable currency exchange rate.

Click For More

Batik Drives Indonesia's Cultural and Economic Success

Indonesia's Batik, an intangible cultural heritage, emerges as a potent tool for cultural diplomacy and economic development, says Deputy Minister Angela Tanoesoedibjo, highlighting its significance as the country's identity and a source of livelihood for thousands of micro, small, and medium enterprises.

Click For More