

IndoConnect NEWSLETTER

Welcome to IndoConnect weekly e-newsletter. The IndoConnect Newsletter is a comprehensive source of news, features, events, activities, and lifestyle topics catering to the Indonesian diaspora in Singapore. As a leading provider of content for Indonesians in Singapore, it serves as a major gateway for staying connected with the Indonesian community. With the support of the Republic of Indonesia Embassy in Singapore, this publication offers valuable information for both short- and long-term stays on the island. Stay informed and engaged with the IndoConnect Newsletter!

Indonesia's Revolutionary Healthcare Approach Revealed at Asia Tech X Singapore 2023

Indonesia's Health Minister shares expertise on AI and data in healthcare at Asia Tech X Singapore 2023, highlighting the country's innovative digitalization efforts and fostering international collaborations.

Click For More

Indonesia Attracts Massive Investments in Industrial Sector

Indonesia's participation in the 2023 Hannover Messe drives $800 million in investments, creating thousands of jobs and highlighting the country's economic resilience and commitment to attracting foreign investors.

Click For More

Indonesia's Export Industry Achieves Remarkable Milestone in May 2023

Indonesia's exports soar in May 2023, reaching US$21.72 billion, signaling robust growth and highlighting the country's competitive edge in the global market.

Click For More

Indonesia's Ace, Anthony Ginting, Retains Singapore Open Crown

Indonesia's national badminton player, Anthony Sinisuka Ginting made history by securing his third straight Singapore Open title, defeating Anders Antonsen in a thrilling final.

Click For More

Nusantara's Future Capital Set to Thrive with New Arts Hub

The Nusantara National Capital Authority plans to establish a Cultural Arts Center in Indonesia's future capital to boost the local economy and preserve the country's diverse cultural heritage.

Click For More